Intensive Interaction Parent Workshop

Intensive Interaction is an approach used with many pupils at Greenmead School. The approach works on early interaction abilities - how to enjoy being with other people – to relate, interact, know, understand and practice communication routines. Come along and find out how you can encourage early interaction and communication with your child.

Wednesday 1st May (11am-1pm) at Greenmead

Please do RSVP

Goodbye

We are sorry to say good-bye to Lauren who has been our music teacher. Lauren has taken up a new role which gives her more time to develop and promote her private music business and charity. We hope to say good-bye at our open achievement assembly on Friday 10th May and currently looking at the possibility of Lauren continuing on a Friday afternoon as part of our enrichment provision. We wish Lauren well and lots of success with her business.
