

Achievements this week

Sofia	Communicating that she wanted help with eating her lunch
Anton	Fantastic interactions and settling back into school
Gabriella	So close to walking; able to take some steps today just holding onto an adult’s pocket!
Nora	Pointing to her new ‘yes’ symbol and signing ‘yes’ when asked if she is beautiful
Nana	Working hard on using her new PODD book
Hannah T	For having a go on the SMILE platform for the first time

Thought/Meme of the Week

Language and AAC learning doesn't just happen during structured activities in school, around a table or whilst sat in a chair!

Try a New Strategy

Cut out this symbol and use to reinforce the use of the word 'go' whenever you say it.

This doesn't just have to be when you are on the move you can also use it when:

- Using toys – “make it GO”
- Taking turns – “my GO”, “you go”
- When leaving the house to get in the car or walk somewhere- “let’s GO”
- When a visitor leaves - “time to GO”
- In ready, steady, GO games

Or just when you want you want 5 minutes peace – “Go away (!!)”
