

Stars of the Week

Rose	Engagement in communication group; sharing her knowledge and understanding of animals in their habitat.
Hannah H	Developing her fine motor skills in learning how to cut out pictures with scissors
Oliver B	Using new vocabulary in topic sessions and demonstrating his understanding of what vegetables need to grow.
Mason &amp; Noah	Working hard as a team to independently make a paper plate parrot
Oliver W	Independently starting and finishing his work and showing great team work in maths
Maisie May	Independent crossed legged sitting for 30 minutes and excellent matching in colourful semantics
Poppy	For doing lots of extra work this week!
Tristan	Lots of lovely interactions with adults in the classroom and engaging in learning activities

Shout-out to Tanya for delivering a very informative and interactive sensory regulation training for the semi-formal pathway

Shout-out for Neptune team for always setting up an engaging provision and keeping their spirits high
Shout-out to Emily for her wonderful display in Mars Class

Eid Mubarak

Eid Mubarak to staff, pupils and their families who celebrated Eid this week. We've been celebrating in school too with classes making cards, listening to Eid music and sharing our different experiences of celebrating Eid with our families. One class made roti's with thanks to a parent who sent in all the ingredients.

Sign of the Week

We have enjoyed learning about Eid this week, one of the key signs we have learnt in school is moon! Have a look on the Makaton website for more signs for Eid.

Crazy Hair Day

In honour and celebration of Ethan (a former pupil at Greenmead) the family are raising money for the Skylarks Charity.

We'd love to be able to contribute to this and are going to be holding a Crazy Hair Day in Ethan's honour on Wednesday 25th May.

Please donate what you can for the charity and come in with your most fabulous crazy hairstyles. We will be taking photos of our celebration to send to Ethan's family.
